FUNSTON'S FIGHTERS ON BORDER IN READINESS FOR VILLA CHASE

General Funston (arrow) and some of his fighting men on Mexican border.

This photograph, just received from the Texas border, shows some of the fighting men who will soon be in full pursuit of the bandit Villa. These men have been on the border for several years, and for a long time they have been impatient to avenge the murder of American citizens on both sides of the boundary line.

IF INTERVENTION IN MEXICO SHOULD BECOME NECESSARY, PLANS LONG MAPPED OUT BY WAR COLLEGE WOULD BE USED

If it should become necessary for the United States to pacify and police Mexico, the plans of operation are all mapped out by the war college at Washington. According to these plans, there would be two main troop movements into Mexico. One would be through Texas and into Mexico wholly by land. The second would be over sea to Vera Cruz and from there inland. This second movement, to insure success, would need at least 100,000 men. The proposed movements are shown by arrows on the map.
